Civil Action No. 3:19-CV-02061-X

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

This case arises from allegations of: (1) violations of the Defend Trade Secrets Act, (2) breach of contract, (3) fraud, (4) RICO violations, and (5) conversion. Defendant Kamil Moore Harrison worked as Plaintiff HomeVestor's Director of Online Operations. HomeVestors alleges that Harrison "implemented and carried out a fraudulent scheme whereby she illegally funneled money from HomeVestors to companies in which she . . . had a personal ownership interest."<sup>1</sup> Harrison filed a motion for summary judgment. After careful consideration, and as explained below, the Court DENIES Harrison's motion for summary judgment.

I. Analysis

The Court finds that Harrison's motion for summary judgment, to the extent it was indeed intended to be a motion for summary judgment, is untimely as discovery had not yet started when it was filed.

II. Conclusion

For the foregoing reason, the Court DENIES Harrison's motion for summary judgment.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 22nd day of October 2020.
